The county commissioners will go to Danbury to-morrow to hear a remonstrance, made by Danbury residents against the granting of a liquor license to James McNiff, who wishes to open a place in Main street, in that city. The remonstrance is based on several counts, including one that the applicant is a person of bad character and that he has been known to sell liquor to minors and also that his location is too near a hat factory. The new tone-arm and double-disc records.

have won the Columbia graphophone's way to the very top. Singly, they are great things. Together, they are wonderful. Double-disc records have a surface better than any other. Their reproductive powers are superb. Their durability is exceptional. And on each side, there is a full selection.

The Columbia tone-arm brings out all the depth and beauty and expression from them as nothing else can do. And so, together they are a wonderful improvement in voice- or sound-reproduction.

Columbia graphophones at $17 to $200 are equipped with the new tone-arm. Double-disc records, covering a wide range of subjects, are ready at 65c to $3.50. The 65-cent are 10-inch size. Like all Columbia disc records, they are practically indestructible.

New quarters in the light and well-aired basement is a good spot to enjoy hearing some of the new records. You are welcome whenever you find it convenient to come.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH DRAMATIC SOCIETY TO GIVE PLAY

On Thursday evening, Feb. 18, the Drama Society of St. John's Episcopal church will present up-to-date comedy entitled, "Men, Maids and Matchmakers," in Burroughs chapel.

The play is full of action, and goes with vim and vigor, the lines are bright and witty and altogether a most enjoyable comedy. It is a play out of which the cast can get much enjoyment in presenting as the audience does in witnessing the production. It is the story of some bachelor maids, young men and a meddling old aunt, who mixes things up generally. The mixture, however, is deliciously pleasing to everybody including the old doctor, Sammie, a cat, and not omitting the audience.

The scenery will be wholly adequate and the costumes of the latest mode, in fact everything has been planned for a most successful entertainment.

The cast will journey to Ansonia on Monday, February 22 and will there present the comedy in the parish hall of the Immanuel church of which the Rev. Benjamin Root is the pastor. The money materialized is for the benefit of that church.

Without a doubt the play will be a great success both financially and from a dramatic standpoint and will reflect great credit on those taking part and upon the directresses, Miss Minnie Walter and Miss Annie Eales.

The cast is as follows: Bachelor maids, "Miss Lillian Stewart," Miss Annette Borg, "Miss Elizabeth Everett," Miss Gertrude Pendleton, "Miss Katherine Howard," Miss Helen Wagner and the double role of "Miss Alice Marshall" who later impersonates "Aunt Selma Winthrop," Miss Annie Eales.

Bachelors—"Guy Richards," Arthur Millington, "Roy Vincent," William Lundberg, "Charles Brewster," William Seward, "Dr. Imhoff," Albert Borg, and "Sammie" a cat.

Some of Bridgeport's most prominent ladies socially, will act as patronesses when the play is given here. They are: Mrs. Frederick Atwater, Mrs. Edmund Chase, Mrs. Edna Edgely, Mrs. Webb Bassick, Mrs. Charles Mallet Cole, Mrs. Charles Ferry, Mrs. Jonathan Godfrey, Mrs. Charles Godfrey, Mrs. Edward Harrell, Mrs. Augustus May, Mrs. Franklin Miller, Mrs. Frederick C. Nichols, Mrs. Glover E. Sanford, Mrs. Hamilton S. Shelton, Mrs. Julian Mueson Tomlinson, and Mrs. Fairchild Wheeler.

BARTENDER RAN AMUCK

(Special from United Press.) New York, Feb. 5.—Very much provoked because he had been discharged Tom Gilloway, a bartender "liquored up" a few minutes ago in a saloon where he had been dispensing free refreshments a short time before and destroyed the license.

Now he is recovering from his alcoholism in a police cell and a fine squabble is on between Atkinson, the police and the license bureau as to whether Atkinson can sell liquor.

Gilloway told the police Atkinson had no license and they raided the place. Atkinson explained but the police wanted to be shown. The only way Atkinson could show that he pays duty is by drastic measures.

SUMMER RESORTS IN CONNECTICUT.

The attractions of the summering places of Connecticut and Rhode Island, Buzzards Bay, Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket and Block Island will be set forth to downtown New Yorkers by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad and the New England Navigation Company from the new city ticket office which they have jointly established at 171 Broadway.

The new office is just a step from Cortlandt street. The subway leaves you almost at its door. One block distant is the great terminal of the New York and New Jersey tunnels. The Cortlandt street station of the Manhattan "L" is only a block away.

Right here in the heart of things, the New Haven road and its allied steamboat lines have established a finely equipped office for disseminating information about New England resorts.

This office will be a great convenience for New England patrons of the rail and Sound lines. Here you may obtain tickets and reservations of your rail car accommodations for a rail journey anywhere in New England and also tickets and stateroom accommodations for the Long Island Sound steamers. New England folks are urged to take advantage of the facilities which this office offers.

ACCUSED ABDUCTOR

IS INDICTED ON SIX SERIOUS CHARGES

Baltimore, Feb. 5.—Joseph M. Janer was today indicted on six counts by the grand jury. The most serious is that of criminal assault, the extreme penalty for that crime in Maryland being hanging. So far relatives or friends of Janer or the Lorch girl, his victim, have failed to put in an appearance. It is expected Janer will be placed on trial early next week.

When the charges were read to Janer in the city jail the man seemed wholly indifferent. At the instance of the Brooklyn authorities the Kings county Grand Jury today indicted Janer for the abduction of little Katherine Lorch. The action taken by the Brooklyn authorities was for the purpose of being ready for the possible escape of Janer from punishment in Baltimore.

The Queen's Daughters will hold a special meeting at the residence of Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, 778 Washington avenue Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
